

POWER MEDIA BLUEBOOK

w/ Talk Show Guest Directory

Broadcast Interview Source, Inc. Washington, D.C.
January 20, 2009

Preface

January 20, 2009

Power Media Bluebook w/Talk Show Guest Directory is our media directory, and it replaces both Power Media Selects, and the Talk Show Selects volumes. Yearbook of Experts members get this directory as a membership benefit, and a CD-ROM with databases, plus updated on-line access.

You must be a Yearbook of Experts member to get full value of this Directory.

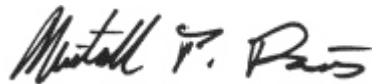

Log-in with your Userid and Password for access to our always updated database. This edition was composed with data from January 5, 2009.

There are three types of journalists in our database:

1. Opt-in information, from journalists who have created public profiles.
2. Nominated journalists we have included and give the option of maintaining and updating their records.
3. Opt-out journalists who have decided not to be visible. A great majority of the opt-out journalists have created cloaked profiles, and receive our news release wire, and copies of the printed Yearbook of Experts.

PR Week called us: “a dating service of PR”, and we hope you find this directory composed of journalists who welcome your contact to be refreshing.

Sincerely,

Mitchell P. Davis

Credentials: I am one of the team that compiles the weekly (Fridays) 10 Great Places" column that runs in the travel section of USA Today, a national newspaper with a circulation of more than 2.3 million. In this column, I interview different experts for recommendations of places to visit tied to a certain theme. See, for example, http://www.usatoday.com/travel/destinations/10great/2007-06-28-liberty-sites_n.htm

Interests: I need to be able to identify a wide variety of experts who can speak about places in the world to visit, connected to certain themes, ranging from food, to natural wonders, to camping and outdoor activities, to architecture, to sports events, etc.

Credentials: I have worked 20 years in local radio. Until 2005 I was morning show host and program Director of a local AM station WFAD in Middlebury. I am now working for a 25,000 WATT FM station 92.1FM WVTK which is focusing on the Champlain Valley of Vermont and New York. I do the morning show which features news & talk and some music.

Interests: I primarily focus on local & regional personalities and newsmakers but also dabble in national topics especially those that effect my listeners. I also try to spice things up with local and national authors that cover a wide variety of topics from history, politics and the paranormal, which is a hobby of mine.
